SAINT PAUL

ORATORIO, Opus 36. Text from the Scriptures. Begun in 1834, finished in 1836. Produced in Düsseldorf, May 22, 1836. First performance by the Handel and Haydn Society, January 22, 1843; present performance the sixteenth.

The words of the narrator will be sung by the soprano and tenor singers; those of Paul by the bass; those of Stephen, Barnabas and Ananias by the tenor.

PART ONE

OVERTURE

Andante con moto: allegro

CHORUS

Christians

Lord, thou alone art God: and thine are the heavens, the earth and mighty waters. The heathen furiously rage, Lord, against thee and against thy Christ. Now behold, lest our foes prevail; and grant to thy servants all strength and joyfulness, that they may preach thy word.

CHORAL

To God on high be thanks and praise,
Who deigns our bonds to sever:
His cares our drooping souls upraise
And harm shall reach us never.
On him we rest with faith assured,
Of all that live the mighty Lord,
Forever and forever.

RECITATIVE

First Narrator

DUET

The False Witnesses

And the many that believed were of one heart and of one soul: and Stephen, full of faith and full of power, did great wonders among the people; and they of the Synagogue were not able to resist the wisdom and the spirit with which he spake. Then they suborned men who were false witnesses, which said:

We verily have heard him blaspheme against these holy places, and against the law: ourselves have heard him speak.

And they stirred up the people and the elders, and came upon him and caught hold of him, and brought him to the council, and spake:

CHORUS

The Sanhedrim

Now this man ceaseth not to utter blasphemous words against the law of Moses and also God. Did we not enjoin and straitly command you, that ye should not teach in the name ye follow? and lo, ye have filled Jerusalem with those unlawful doctrines. He hath said, and our ears have heard him, Jesus of Nazareth, he shall destroy all these our holy places, and change all the laws and customs which Moses delivered us.

RECITATIVE

First Narrator: Stephen

CHORUS

The Multitude

And all that sat in the council looked steadfastly on him, and saw his face as it had been the face of an angel. Then said the High Priest, Are these things so? And Stephen said:

Men, brethren, and fathers, hearken to me. The God of Glory appeared unto our fathers, delivered the people out of their afflictions, and gave them favor; but they understood it not. He sent Moses into Egypt; for he saw their afflictions and heard their groaning; but they refused him, and would not obey his word, but thrust him from them, and sacrificed to senseless idols. Solomon built him an house; albeit the Most High God dwelleth not in temples which are made with hands; for Heaven is his throne, and earth is but his footstool. Hath not his hand made all these things? Ye hard of heart, ye always do resist the Holy Ghost: as did your fathers, even so do ye. Which of the prophets have not your fathers persecuted? And they have slain them which showed before the coming of him, the Just One, with whose murder ye have here been stained. Ye have received the law by the disposition of angels, and ye have not obeyed it.

Take him away. For now the holy name of God he hath blasphemed; and who blasphemeth him, he shall perish.

Lo, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of God.

SOPRANO AIR

Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered unto me thy children, and ye would not.

RECITATIVE

Second Narrator

CHORUS

The Multitude

Then they ran upon him with one accord and cast him out of the city, and stoned him, and cried aloud,

Stone him to death. He blasphemeth God; and who does so shall surely perish. Stone him to death.

RECITATIVE

Second Narrator

CHORAL

And they stoned him; and he kneeled down and cried aloud, Lord, lay not this sin to their charge. Lord Jesus, receive my spirit. And when he had said this, he fell asleep.

To thee, O Lord, I yield my spirit,

Who break'st in love this mortal chain:
My life I but from thee inherit,

And death becomes my chiefest gain.
In thee I live, in thee I die,
Content, for thou art ever nigh.

10

RECITATIVE

First Narrator

And the witnesses had laid down their clothes at the feet of a young man whose name was Saul, who was consenting unto his death. And devout men took Stephen and carried him to his burial, and made great lamentation over him.

11

CHORUS

Happy and blest are they who have endured; for though the body dies, the soul shall live forever.

12

RECITATIVE

Second Narrator

AIR

Saul

Now Saul made havoc of the Church; and breathing out threatenings and slaughter against the disciples, he spake of them much evil, and said,

Consume them all, Lord Sabaoth. Consume all these thine enemies. Behold, they will not know thee, that thou, our great Jehovah, art the Lord alone, the highest over all the world. Pour out thine indignation, and let them feel thy power.

13

ALTO RECITATIVE AND AIR.

And he journeyed with companions toward Damascus, and had authority and command from the High Priest, that he might bring them bound, men and women, unto Jerusalem.

But the Lord is mindful of his own: he remembers his children. Bow down before him, ye mighty; for the Lord is near us.

14

RECITATIVE

Second Narrator: Saul

CHORUS

The Heavenly Voice

And as he journeyed, he came near unto Damascus; when suddenly there shone around him a light from Heaven; and he fell to the earth; and he heard a voice saying unto him,

Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

And he said, Lord, who art thou?

And the Lord said to him,

I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom thou persecutest.

And he said, trembling and astonished,

Lord, what wilt thou have me do?

The Lord said to him,

Arise and go into the city; and there thou shalt be told what thou must do.

.. EVERY LADY..

Knows how indispensable now, in the household, is a "Dress Form" — Ufford's New Departure '98 Patented Extension Form is meeting this want. No previous Form is like it or equal to it. It may be asked why were not these great improvements sooner thought out. The same might be asked in regard to other late inventions. The known defects in all other extension forms are in these avoided. With only the expense of one the several members of the family, though differing in size, can be quickly fitted, fitted superbly, with its ten or more changes without any complicated mechanism, opening symmetrically. No opening in centre of front and back as in all other extension forms. Our prominent dressmakers, recognizing their merits, are fast procuring them, and enthusiastically praise them. One, writing, says "They are lovely." Another says she "is delighted" We have not space here to attempt a suitable description, nor would a ent suffice. They should be seen and examined. CHORUS

Rise up, arise, and shine; for thy light comes; and the glory of the Lord riseth bright upon thee. Behold now total darkness covereth the kingdoms, and gross darkness the people; but upon thee riseth the mighty Lord; and the glory of the Lord appeareth upon thee.

CHORAL

Sleepers, wake, a voice is calling:
It is the Watchman on the walls,
Thou city of Jerusalem.
For lo, the Bridegroom comes:
Arise and take your lamps. Hallelujah!
Awake! his kingdom is at hand.
Go forth to meet your Lord.

RECITATIVE

Second Narrator

And his companions which journeyed with him stood; and they were afraid, hearing a voice, but seeing no man. And Saul arose from the earth; and when his eyes were opened, he saw no man. But they led him by the hand and brought him into Damascus; and he was three days without sight, and did neither eat nor drink.

AIR

Paul

O God, have mercy upon me, and blot out my transgressions, according to thy loving kindness; yea, even for thy mercy's sake, deny me not. O cast me not away from thy presence, and take not thy Spirit from me. Lord, a broken and a contrite heart is offered before thee. I will speak of thy salvation: I will teach transgressors, that all the sinners shall be converted unto thee. Then open thou my lips, O Lord; and my mouth shall show forth thy glorious praise.

RECITATIVE

Second Narrator: The Heavenly Voice

And there was a disciple at Damascus named Ananias: to him said the Lord,

Ananias, arise, and inquire thou for Saul of Tarsus; for behold, he prayeth. He is a chosen vessel unto me, the Lord; and I will show unto him how great things he must suffer for my name's sake.

AIR AND CHORUS

Paul

I praise thee, O Lord my God, with all my heart, forever more: for great is thy mercy toward me; and thou hast delivered my soul from the lowest hell.

CHORUS

The Lord he is good: he shall dry your tears and heal all your sorrows. For his word shall not decay.

RECITATIVE

First Narrator

Ananias

And Ananias went his way, and entered into the house; and laying his hands upon him, said,

Hear thou, brother Saul. The Lord hath sent me hither, even Jesus that appeared unto thee as thou camest, that thou mightest receive thy sight, and be likewise filled with the Holy Ghost.

And there fell from his eyes like as though it were scales; and he received sight forthwith, and arose, and was baptized. And straightway he preached Jesus in the synagogues, and said, I thank God, who hath made me free through Christ.

CHORUS

O great is the depth of the riches of wisdom and knowledge of the Father. How deep and unerring is he in his judgments. His ways are past our understanding. Sing his glory forever more. Amen.

PART TWO

CHORUS

The nations are now the Lord's: they are his Christ's. For all the Gentiles come before thee, and shall worship thy name. Now are made manifest thy glorious law and judgments.

First Narrator

And Paul came to the congregation, and preached freely the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Then spake the Holy Ghost, Set ye apart Barnabas and Paul for the work whereunto I have called them. And when they had fasted and prayed, and laid their hands on them, they sent them away.

Paul and Barnabas

Now we are ambassadors in the name of Christ; and God beseeches you by us.

How lovely are the messengers that preach us the gospel of peace! To all the nations is gone forth the sound of their words; throughout all the lands their glad tidings.

So they, being filled with the Holy Ghost, departing thence delayed not, and preached the word of God with joyfulness.

I will sing of thy great mercies, O Lord, my Saviour, and of thy faithfulness evermore.

Second Narrator

But when the Jews saw the multitude, how they assembled to hear what Paul delivered unto them, they were filled with envy and spake against those things which were spoken by Paul, contradicting and blaspheming.

Thus saith the Lord, I am the Lord, and beside me is no Saviour.

And they laid wait for Paul, and consulted together that they might kill him, and spake one to another:

The Multitude

Is this he, who in Jerusalem destroyed all calling on that name which here he preacheth? May all deceivers ever be confounded. Force him away.

O thou, the true and only Light,
Direct the souls that walk in night;
And bring them 'neath thy shelt'ring care,
To find their blest redemption there.

Illumine those who blindly roam:
Oh, call the wanderer kindly home.
The hearts astray that union crave,
And those in doubt, confirm and save.

Second Narrator: Paul

But Paul and Barnabas spake freely and pulickly unto the people:

Ye were chosen first to have the word of the Lord set before you; but seeing that ye put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of the life everlasting, behold ye, we turn even now unto the Gentiles.

Paul and Barnabas

For so hath the Lord himself commanded: Behold, I have made thee a light to the Gentiles, and for salvation unto all the earth. For those who call on the Lord, he will hear them, and they shall be blessed.

First Narrator

And there was a man at Lystra, impotent in his feet, and who had never walked; and the same heard Paul speak; who, steadfastly beholding him, said with a loud voice, Stand upright upon thy feet. And he leaped up, and walked, and praised God. But when the Gentiles saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voices, saying one to another,

The Gentiles

The gods themselves as mortals have descended. Behold them here, and adore them.

First Narrator

And they called Barnabas Jupiter and Paul Mercurius. Then the priest of Jupiter, which was before the city, brought oxen and garlands to the gates, and would have sacrificed with the people, and adored them.

The Gentiles

O be gracious, ye immortals. Heed our sacrifice with favor.

RECITATIVE

Second Narrator: Paul

AIR

Paul

Now when the apostles heard the same, they rent their garments, and ran in among the people, crying out and saying,

O wherefore do ye these things? We also are men of like passions with yourselves; who preach unto you, in peace and earnestness, that ye should turn away from all these vanities unto the ever-living God, who made the outstretched heavens, the earth, and the sea. And saith the prophet, All your idols are but falsehood, and there is no breath in them. They are vanity, and the work of errors: in the time of their trouble they shall perish. God dwelleth not in temples made with hands.

For know ye not that ye are his temple, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth within you? And whosoever God's temple defileth, God shall surely destroy him; for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are.

But our God abideth in heaven: his will directeth all the world.

37

RECITATIVE

First Narrator

Then the multitude was stirred up against them, and there was an assault of the Jews and of the Gentiles: they were full of anger, and cried out against them,

38

CHORUS

The Gentiles

This is Jehovah's Temple. Ye children of Israel, help us. This is the man who teacheth all men, against the people, against this place, and also our holy law. We have heard him speak against the law. He blasphemeth God. Stone him to death!

39

RECITATIVE

First Narrator

And they all persecuted Paul on his way; but the Lord stood with him, and strengthened him, that by him the word might be fully known, and that all the Gentiles might hear.

TENOR AIR

Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give to thee a crown of life. Be not afraid: my help is nigh.

41

RECITATIVE

First Narrator: Paul

And Paul sent, and called the elders of the church at Ephesus, and said to them,

Ye know how at all seasons I have been with you, serving the Lord with all humility and with many tears, testifying the faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ. And now behold ye, I, bound in spirit, now go forth to Jerusalem. Bonds and affliction abide me there; and ye shall see my face no more.

And they all wept sore, and prayed.

42

QUARTETTE AND CHORUS

Far be it from thy path. These things shall not be unto thee.

43

RECITATIVE

Paul: Second Narrator

What mean ye thus to weep, and thus to break my heart? For I am prepared not only to be bound, but also to die at Jerusalem, for the name of the Lord our Saviour, Jesus Christ.

And when he had thus spoken, he kneeled down and prayed with them all. And they accompanied him unto the ship, and saw his face no more.

RECITATIVE

First Narrator

And though he be offered upon the sacrifice of our faith, yet he hath fought a good fight: he hath finished his course: he hath kept well the faith. Henceforth there is laid up for him a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, shall give him at the last great day.

45

CHORUS

Not only unto him, but to all them that love truly his appearing. The Lord careth for us and blesseth us. Bless thou the Lord, O my soul, and all within me bless and praise his holy name forever. All ye his angels, praise ye the Lord.
